

Self-Determination and Self-Advocacy

Essential for All Students in
All Educational Settings

This training was developed by the Project 10: Transition Education Network, a discretionary project funded by the Florida Department of Education, Division of Public Schools, Bureau of Exceptional Student Education (BESE), through federal assistance under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Part B.

Objectives

After this training, participants will be able to:

- Describe the critical impact of self-determination for all students.
- Recognize one's role and impact in student's learning of self-determination skills.
- Discuss federal and state legislation that supports self-determination and self-advocacy for students with disabilities.
- Identify key concepts related to the development and practice of self-determination skills.
- Discuss methods to integrate self-determination instruction into the curriculum and expand teachers' instructional strategies toolbox.
- Identify resources related to self-determination.

