- Transition Resource List Overview
- Challenges and Needs Discussion
- Strategies Sharing
- Existing Resources Walkthrough
- Next Steps and Where to get Further Assistance

Webinar Goal: Support Florida's educators and all transition stakeholders

Currently, our goal is to support Florida's educators and all transition stakeholders, by:

- Listening to you and your most pressing needs as you attempt to serve students with disabilities in the COVID-19 climate.
- Giving you an opportunity to share strategies that are working for you and your school/district.
- Providing useful transition resources, offer one-on-one technical assistance or training as needed and, generally, be concerned colleagues and friends who are here to help in any way that we can.

Helpful Online Transition-Related Resources

Helpful Online Transition-Related Resources

Updated 3/30/20

How to use this guide: The most effective way to use this resource is in collaboration with your Project 10 Regional Transition Representative (RTR). RTRs are available for technical assistance via Zoom and/or phone.

Section 1 of this guide includes resources that districts and families may find helpful in both distance/remote teaching or in the classroom. There are four subsections, including the following:

- Online Student-Directed Assessments,
- Teacher-Led Printable Assessments,
- General Transition Assessment Resources and
- Additional Resources.

Online Student-Directed Assessments

1. 1-2-3 Test, Career Aptitude Test: This free career aptitude test can provide insight into a person's job personality. Based on a characterization of the individual's personality in terms of Holland Code personality types, he/she will learn what kind of work environments and occupations would be best. The results of this career test provide individuals with a list of professions and occupations that fit their career personality.

Services for Students in DJJ, County Jails and Alternative Schools

- DJJ and county jail schools are encouraged to operate virtually or through virtual learning. If face-to-face instruction is permitted, CDC guidelines should be followed.
- Virtual platforms, distance learning opportunities, training and support should be included in the district's plan for continuity of learning to the same extent as all other students and teachers.
- Each student with an IEP, or 504 plan, should be included in the district's plan for continuity of learning to the same extent as all other students.
- Identify plans for students and staff for any unmet technology needs.
