

Community-Based Instruction (CBI): An Effective Instructional Strategy

This training was developed by the Project 10: Transition Education Network, a discretionary project funded by the Florida Department of Education, Division of Public Schools, Bureau of Exceptional Student Education (BESE), through federal assistance under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Part B.

Objectives

After this training, participants will be able to:

- Describe CBI and its benefits.
- Distinguish the difference between field trips (also a useful instructional strategy) and CBI.
- Describe the responsibilities of CBI participants, including school administrators, teachers, paraprofessionals, nursing staff, families and students.
- Evaluate the merits of CBI and determine if CBI can be implemented to better serve students in transition and support employment goals.
