

SAVE THE DATE

College Matters Speaker Series

January 11, 2021 • 3:00 PM

College Matters Speaker Series: Session 2

Promoting inclusive postsecondary options with transition stakeholders including students and families, IEP team members, and adult service entities.

FEATURED PANELISTS

Cate Weir has served as a Project Coordinator of the Think College National Coordinating Center since 2010. In addition to presenting at conferences to raise awareness of college options for students with ID, she manages the Think College website, including its College Search database and Resource Library.

Janice Seabrooks-Blackmore is the Executive Director of the Florida Center for Students with Unique Abilities. Her expertise is in transition-related issues for students with disabilities in secondary and postsecondary education settings.

Tosha Littles is the Director of the Parent Support Network. She is a community builder who believes in strengthening families, cultivating positive leadership, and creating effective advocacy in school and community environments.

Maria Paiewonsky, Transition Specialist from Think College, has coordinated numerous local and state projects focused on college-based transition services. In this capacity she has partnered with students with ID in a variety of ways to promote inclusive postsecondary education.

UPCOMING DATES

Session 2: January 11
Session 3: February 22
Session 4: April 5
Session 5: May 24

All Dates:
3–4:00pm EST

FOR MORE INFO

Jaimie Timmons
Jaimie.timmons@umb.edu

TO REGISTER:

www.eventbrite.com/e/speaker-series-on-inclusive-postsecondary-education-in-florida-registration-127723282777

College Matters is a project of Think College at the Institute for Community Inclusion, UMass Boston. It is sponsored by the Florida Developmental Disabilities Council, Inc., supported in part by grant numbers 1901FLSCDD-01 and 2001FLSCDD-01 from the US Administration for Community Living, Department of Health and Human Services. Grantees undertaking projects with government sponsorship are encouraged to express freely their findings and conclusions. Points of view or opinions do not, therefore, necessarily represent official ACL policy.