

The Future Starts Now: Preparing for Secondary Transition in Middle School

This training was developed by the Project 10: Transition Education Network, a discretionary project funded by the Florida Department of Education, Division of Public Schools, Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services (BEES), through federal assistance under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Part B.

Objectives

After this training, participants will be able to:

- Utilize resources to support secondary transition planning.
- State the course requirements and career planning activities required for students in middle school.
- Understand the components of the Transition Individual Educational Plan (TIEP).
- Describe activities and strategies to help support students as they enter, attend and/or exit middle school.
- Envision middle school as a launching point for secondary transition – preparing students for adult life.
